Community Waste Disposal earns 2005 Corporate Business of the Year award from Frisco Chamber of Commerce

- WHO: Community Waste Disposal (CWD) – largest privately owned waste management company in the DFW metroplex.
- WHAT: 2005 Corporate Business of the Year award from Frisco Chamber of Commerce
- DETAILS: On January 21, CWD of Dallas received the 2005 Corporate Business of the Year award from the Frisco Chamber of Commerce at their 22nd annual awards banquet.

Selection for the award is based on community service along with community involvement by both the business and its employees, explained Audie Adkins, Frisco Chamber of Commerce president.

CWD's community partnerships include "involvement since 1994 concerning the recycling program here in Frisco," Adkins said. "For instance, CWD was instrumental in helping Frisco win an award from the NRC [National Recycling Coalition]." In August 2005, the NRC awarded the Beth Brown Boettner Award for Outstanding Public Education to the City of Frisco for its recycling education program.

CWD also assists with the Frisco Education Foundation's annual "Gary Burns Frisco Fun Run" and participates in the City of Frisco's Merry Main Street celebration among many other activities.

"The award is about being part of the community," said Adkins. "They are truly community partners...with 'star quality'."
