Frisco, Texas Awards CWD a 5 Year Contract Renewal

Dallas, Texas – May 6, 2009 – Tuesday evening, May 5, 2009, The Frisco City Council voted unanimously to extend its’ residential refuse and recycling service contract with Community Waste Disposal. This contract, valued in excess of 18 million dollars, is the first renewal ever offered in Frisco’s history.

Before the vote, Councilman Cheney stated, “CWD has been a great community partner and delivered great service to the residents of Frisco and I support their new contract.”

“For the past 5 years the men and women at CWD have dedicated themselves to a higher standard of service. Our community partnership and reliable services pushed CWD over the top Tuesday night”, said CWD President, Greg Roemer.

Community Waste Disposal is the largest privately owned and most comprehensive recycling, MSW collection and processing company in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. CWD services numerous premier apartment, hi-rise and commercial accounts as well as many DFW municipalities .

Frisco residential recycling vehicle aids in community education with positive "green" reinforcement.
